Vol. 5. No. 1.

MILWAUKEE:

HOFFMANN BROTHERS,

PRINTERS TO THE HOLY APOSTOLIC SEE.

1890.

EDITORIAL.

For the fifth time Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory and Clergy List Quarterly has made its annual appearance, and the publishers take pleasure and pride in presenting this, their fifth volume to the Rev. Clergy and the public. All reports have been carefully revised and made as complete as possible, and we have also sub-divided the clergy list, so that all clergymen belonging to the Regular Clergy are given separately under the headings of their respective Orders.

We hope this improvement will prove of benefit to our patrons and meet with their approval.

STATISTICS.

It is much to be regretted that statistics are not more carefully kept, in every Diocese there are parishes that fail to report and many Dioceses report statistics only partially, so that any general summary that can be made up, at best is only an approximation. We have endeavored to procure as complete reports as possible this year, what success we have met with, our General Summary goes to show.

The total Catholic population in the United States appears to be 8,301,367, according to the official reports sent us. Too little importance seems to be attached to the compilation of accurate statistics, still these items are of the greatest importance, and, in years to come, the material now gathered and published in the Catholic Directory will be valuable as a part of our Church History.

We again earnestly urge the necessity of keeping accurate Diocesan statistics and sincerely hope to record an improvement in this respect in the Directory of 1891.

ADVERTISERS.

We call the attention of our subscribers to the numerous advertisements of our patrons in this Directory. Their generous aid in advertising, has gone far toward defraying the enormous expense of publishing the work. When in want of goods in their line, you cannot do better than call on, or correspond with them, they are representative houses in their respective lines, and as such we cordially recommend them. When writing, please mention Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory.

CONCLUSION.

We tender our sincere thanks to the Most Rev. Archbishops, the Rt. Rev. Bishops, and the Rev. Chancellors and Secretaries of the various Dioceses for their courtesy and care in revising the lists and in furnishing information asked.

We shall endeavor to perfect this publication continually and request our patrons to inform us of all necessary changes and corrections, and thus assist us in making the "Directory and Clergy List Quarterly" reliable and thorough. We now present the publication to the Reverend Clergy and the Catholic Public, for their inspection and approbation, hoping that the reward of careful and patient service may be reaped by us in their appreciation of our efforts.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

CARDINALS.

GUILBERT, Aime Victor Francois, died August 15th. The deceased distinguished ecclesiastic was born November 12th, 1812, at Cherisey-le-Foret, in Normandy, and after making his studies he was ordained priest December 17th, 1836. In 1867 he was appointed Bishop of Gap; thirteen years later he was nominated Bishop of Amiens. On the death of Cardinal Donnet, he was transferred to the See of Bordeaux, and, finally, he was created a member of the Sacred College on May 24th last. On the 11th of last June he received the insignia of his high office from President Carnot, and then he appeared robust notwithstanding his long years of arduous labor in the Lord's vineyard. His demise was then unlooked for, but "the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away," so He has called His servant to the enjoyment of that eternal peace which is the reward of all who labor for His holy Church.

MASSAIA, William, O.M.Cap., titular Archbishop of Caria, who, in the course of thirty-five years' missionary work in Africa, underwent the most thrilling adventures, died at the age of 80 years. In June, 1849, he was imprisoned at Nagadras. In May, 1854, as he was passing the western provinces of Abyssinia, he was, on reaching Dunkut, diguised as a merchant, recognized by the Arabs, who were with difficulty prevented from murdering him. That same year he was once more thrown into prison at Nagadras. He began another term of harsh captivity on August 25, 1861, when he lost all his manuscripts; on November 30th he was accused of magic before the monarch Ennerea, who plundered him of everything and exiled him. In the following June he was accused of conspiracy against the Gaggias, and although he cleared himself, was expelled and forced to return to Guadra. On June 27th, 1863, he was arrested on the eastern frontier by the soldiers of Theodore II, who robbed him of everything, and brought him before the king. This potentate threw him into prison for a month. The distinguished Capuchin passed away at Naples. Fortunately he has left behind a complete work on his extraordinary missionary labors.

SACCONI, Charles, Dean of the Sacred College and Bishop of Ostia and Velletri, died from paralysis of the heart, February 25th, 1889. Born in 1808, he had been successively Apostolic Nuncio to Sardonia; to Florence under the Grand Ducal regime in Tuscany, and finally to the court of Napoleon III, Emperor of the French, where he was Nuncio, when created by Pius IX in the Consistory of September 27th, 1861, Cardinal Priest, of the title of S. Maria del Popolo. On the death of Cardinal Di Pietro in 1884, Cardinal Sacconi became Dean of the Sacred College and Bishop of the First Suburban Sees of Ostia and Velletri. Notwithstanding his advanced age he preserved, to the last, his full health and lucid mental faculties, and died peacefully, fortified by the Sacraments of the Church, and the special Apostolic Blessing, in articulo mortis.

SCHIAFFINO, Placidus Maria, of the Benedictine Congregation, died suddenly in Rome, September 24th. He was born at Genoa, September 5th, 1829, and made Cardinal by Leo XIII in 1885. Cardinal Schiaffino was one of the most distinguished and learned members of the Sacred College.

DE VEUSTER, Rev. Joseph Damien, died on the 10th of April, comforted by the Sacraments of the Church he loved so well and so faithfully served. This martyr of charity was born January 3, 1840, at Tremeloo, a village of Belgium. At the age of nineteen he entered the "Picpus" Congregation as an humble lay brother, taking the name of Damien. In the fall of 1863 he embarked, and after a stormy voyage reached Honolulu, the capital of the Sandwich Islands, on the 19th of March, 1864. Upon his arrival, Brother Damien was ordained priest, and for nine years followed the life of unceasing toil which is the lot of every Catholic missionary. When, in the year 1873, the Bishop of Honolulu expressed the regret that he was unable to provide the leper settlement with a permanent resident pastor, Father Damien, with no motive of human consideration to prompt him, offered himself for the place. His generous offer was accepted, and he started for the mission in May, 1873, without even waiting to say good-bye to his friends. As soon as he set his foot upon the island, he exclaimed: "This is your life work, Joseph," and set about it in earnest and without delay. He began by endeavoring to improve the condition of his flock. His time was so given to his suffering fellow-creatures, that he could not find leisure to build himself a hut, and regardless of wind and rain he slept in the open air. It was not long before his charity and goodness had an effect upon those whose sensibilities had been blunted and their hearts hardened by suffering. The lepers came to look upon him as their friend and helper. He moved among them and lived with them as one of themselves, and soon his influence became unbounded. Space will not permit us to enumerate all that Father Damien did for those under his charge. He built them churches of which he was at once architect, carpenter, mason and painter. He built an orphanage and an hospital, and organized schools. He advised and cared for the living, he brought consolation and comfort to the dying, and buried the dead. Until 1884 he felt fairly well. In that year pains in the left foot troubled him. Toward the close of 1884, a physician diagnosed his trouble as leprosy. In May, 1885, the doctors after a careful examination found no signs that the disease was spreading; but in August of that year leprous tubercles plainly manifested themselves in his face, and Father Damien knew that his doom was sealed. But the heroic priest did not relinquish his work. He still walked and talked with the lepers, ministering to the sick, teaching the children, living the same old life of poverty and hardship, and thinking only of alleviating the lot of the lepers and caring for their souls. His only reward was in seeing that he had benefited both the souls and bodies of his charges in abundant measure. In the spring of 1886, there came to Father Damien assistants in the persons of Fathers Conrady and Wendelin Moellers, in company with two lay-brothers of the same Order, Brother Joseph and Brother James, and later on a number of Franciscan Sisters. They came none too soon, for Father Damien was now sadly disfigured and was gradually wasting away. But happy and contended he worked on to the end now near at hand. Such is, in brief, the story of a noble life, to whose worth the whole civilized world pays tribute.

AN IMMIGRATION SOCIETY.

A society has been established in the Diocese of Lincoln amongst the Clergy to encourage immigration. The Clergy, knowing the great fertility of the soil of Nebraska, the cheapness of land in this Garden of America and the easy methods of transit through the South Platte country—the most fertile portion of exceptionally fertile Nebraska—feel that they can with confidence invite all intending immigrants to open immediate correspondence with the undermentioned committee or any of its members. For delicate persons the pure clear air of Nebraska cannot be excelled. The following gentlemen, who compose the committee, will give reliable information to every one seeking it: Rev. T. Cullen, McCook, Red Willow Co., Neb.; Rev. J. J. Loughran, Minden, Kearney Co., Neb.; Rev. M. M. Merkl, Fairbury, Jefferson Co., Neb.; Mr. Charles Scheirer, Neel P. O., Dundy Co., Neb.; Mr. E. W. CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

Cathedral of St. Augustine (3000), Revs. D. Bottolaccio, B. O'Reilly, assts. The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic, and continued to have a large preponderance of Catholics until quite recently.

Chapel of our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory,

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions.

Office:—The Sun Building, No. 1315 F. Street. N.W., Washington, D.C.

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs.

It was incorporated, under the laws of the United States, on June 14, 1887, being empowered thereby to receive bequests—its corporate name being "THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS."

It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, formally recognized as an institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of five Prelates, consisting of His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons, Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena; and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of Sioux Falls. This Committee has laid down rules for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as members thereof the following:—

RT. REV. M. MARTY, D.D., President.
REV. P. L. CHAPELLE, D.D., Vice-President.

REV. G. L. WILLARD, Vice-Director.
REV. J. A. WALTER, Treasurer.
REV. E. A. MCGURK, S.J.

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance, which is done by means of contracts entered into between the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Bureau.

For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1888, and ending June 30, 1889, the Bureau has secured Contracts for carrying on 38 Boarding and 16 Day Schools, providing for the support and tuition of 2787 boarding pupils and the tuition of 650 day pupils, with an aggregate compensation of $320,301.

PITTSBURG CATHOLIC COLLEGE OF THE HOLY GHOST, PITTSBURG, PA.

This College is conducted by the Fathers of the Holy Ghost. It is duly incorporated and has full power to confer academic degrees. The curriculum is so arranged as to supply a complete, liberal education in Classics, Mathematics, Modern Languages and Science; but special facilities are afforded such pupils as desire to direct their attention exclusively or chiefly to business pursuits. Actual business, short-hand writing and type-writing are taught.

In each division of subjects there are several distinct classes, graduated to suit the different ages and capacities of pupils.

A special diploma is given at the end of the business course.

The school hours are from 9 A. M. to 2.30 P. M., including half an hour for lunch. The pension for ordinary day pupils is $5 and $6 per month, according to the classes in which they are. At an extra charge of $6 per month, boys are admitted to dine in the College at noon and prosecute their studies until 5 P. M. Besides, a limited number of boys are received to board altogether in the College from Monday morning until Friday evening at a charge of $16 per month, including tuition. Boys whose parents live some distance from town, can be accommodated as full boarders for $20 per month. There is for all boarders an entrance fee of $5.00.

Besides the lay students the establishment also includes

SCHOLASTICS.

These students live apart and are such as, believing themselves called to religious and missionary life in the Society of the Holy Ghost pursue here a full collegiate course preparatory to entering on the study of Philosophy and Theology. Young men are admitted to probation in this department on presenting satisfactory testimonials. In addition to the above, those who feel a vocation to the religious state alone, without wishing to advance to the Priesthood, may enter the Society as LAY BROTHERS.

These enjoy all the advantages of religious life. They aid the Priests of the Society on their Missions and in the various departments. Satisfactory testimonials and certain qualifications are required before being admitted as Lay Brothers. For further particulars apply to

To those engaged in mercantile pursuits, any invention that will facilitate their labors is highly worthy of notice as well as extensive patronage. One of the most important inventions of the present age is that of a pen that possesses the necessary qualities of fineness in mark and durability in use.

Pre-eminently such are those of JOHN FOLEY, manufacturer of Fine Gold Pens and Pencils. Their superior value is tested by the long time he has been engaged in their manufacture.

TESTIMONIALS.

BENEDICTINE MONASTERY,
EINSIEDELN (Switzerland), November 1, 1888.

GENTLEMEN:—It gives us great pleasure to be able to express our fullest satisfaction and appreciation with the Stained Glass Windows which you have just placed into the Chapel of our Convent. We admit, the task which you accomplished was not a small one, considering that there were 83 windows to be filled, containing over 7,000 square feet. Much more difficult was it to solve the artistic and aesthetic problem, to execute windows for a church built in the richest Barocco, with figural and ornamental decorations in rich colors, without marring in the least the complete harmonious impression and especially without interfering with the light of the church to which we are accustomed. The problem was most ably solved. The composition, drawing of the figures and ornamental parts, the correct treatment of that peculiar style, the coloring and technicalities, are equally successful and praiseworthy. You have proven that your establishment is thoroughly efficient in the treatment not only of Windows of the Gothic and Romanesque, but also of the Renaissance, Barocco and Rococo style. We can only wish that you may be equally fortunate in solving similar problems with the same brilliant success in other churches. Yours respectfully, BASILIUS, Abbot.

COLLEGIO GERMANICUM.
VIA S. NICOLA DA TOLENTINO 8. ROME, Oct. 1, 1888.

GENTLEMEN:—The Stained Glass Windows executed for the St. Canisius Church of the Collegio Germanicum having now been placed into position, I cannot but tender you my sincerest congratulations on the magnificent work produced by your establishment. The artist, having combined correct beautiful drawing and representation with the requirements and severity of the Romanesque style, has thus thoroughly carried out my intentions. The ornamental parts and the figured representations are combined through the deep brilliant coloring, producing a splendid effect. In my opinion the large three-light window in the transept, representing "Christ sending His Apostles into the World," might claim the first prize. What I would like to mention particularly is that even the small heads—as for instance the one of St. Boniface, show excellently their beautiful and noble conception. Repeating my congratulations, I wish to express my gratitude and remain, Gentlemen, your obedient servant in Christ,
FRIEDRICH SCHROEDER, S. J., Rector.

351 East 55th Street, NEW YORK.

GENTLEMEN:—It gives me great pleasure to add my word of commendation to the wealth of praise that has been bestowed upon your work of Stained Glass Art. The windows in the Church of St. John the Evangelist have been universally admired and all that have seen them agree in saying the work could not be excelled. I did not decide on the selection of these windows until I had carefully examined the work of all the other promiuent houses, and concluded that yours was unmistakably the best. This confidence in your ability and experience was not misplaced and after two years I find the beauty of the work growing on me day by day which could only be in the case of true art. Wishing you every success, I remain, Yours respectfully, J. J. FLOOD, Pastor.

A POPULAR DEFENSE OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINES.

BY REV. JOHN GMEINER.

1. Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines. Compared. Price, Paper, 35 Cts.; Cloth, 60 Cts.

"This unpretentious little volume . . is a treasury of scientific information and philosophical criticism. . . . In small compass we have here a lucid refutation of the more popular and widespread errors of the day. . . .

The general reader will rise from the persual of this little work, not merely instructed and entertained, but, what is vastly more important, with his faith strenghtened in the dogmas of the Church and his mind comforted by the evident harmony reigning between religious and scientific truth. To those whose duties oblige them to mix in infidel society, this volume may be strongly recommended. Indeed, it is on the side of a false science and a corrupt philosophy that we must chiefly look for the temptest that is to try us. The true wisdom, then, is not to shirk difficulties or to deny facts, but to answer the one and to explain the other. Considering its very limited size and the extent of the ground it covers, this task has been ably done in the present volume.

The Dublin Review, April, 1885.

"Father Gmeiner has produced, with great carefulness, with scholarly precision, and with terseness and clearness of expression, an antidote, much needed to that most insidious poison, modern scientific infidelity. . . . It is of immense value to counteract the effects of scrappy reading and lack of thinking which sometimes makes scoffers and skeptics of illinstructed Catholics."

2. The Spirits of Darkness and their Manifestations on Earth; or, Ancient and Modern Spiritualism. Price, Paper, 35 Cts.; Cloth, 60 Cts.

"This is volume II. of 'A popular Defense of Christian Doctrines,' and it is not less able and opportune than the first—'Modern Scientific Views and Christian Doctrines Compared.' The subject so learnedly treated of is highly important; for, do away with the spirits of darkness, and you do away with the whole Christian Revelation. The work amply proves the existence of those spirits, and that they concern themselves in the affairs of men. It is suited, therefore, for those amongst us who are thrown into the company of modern Sadducees and infidels, and who should be ready with an answer to their objections. It deserves a place also in the library of such as come in contact with Spiritualists, showing as it does, the real nature of those spirits evoked by mediums, and of whose manifestations we nowadays read so much."

The Ave Marie, Notre Dame, Ind.

"The Spirits of Darkness and their manifestations on earth; or ancient and modern spiritualism, by the Rev. John Gmeiner . . . is a carefully prepared and well written statement of the doctrine of the Catholic Church on the subject, that will well repay persual by all interested in physical phenomena; as evidence of the thoroughness of the professor, we note the fact that he has three hundred and sixty foot notes of references, ranging from the earliest records down to Mind in Nature for Febuary (1886)."—Mind in Nature: A Popular Journal of Physical, Medical and Scientific Information, Chicago.

3. Emmanuel, the Savior of the World. Price, Paper, 25 Cts.; Cloth, 50 Cts.

"The work now before us is fully deserving of the great popularity won by its predecessors. . . . A vast amount of learning is here condensed within the compass of a little over one hundred pages."—The American Catholic Quarterly Review.

"Father Gmeiner's little treatise . . is a valuable addition to his other volumes of a Popular Defense of a Christian Doctrine. It is an admirable epitome of Catholic teaching, its arguments are clearly and cogently put before the reader, and the numerous references show the author's wide research in all subjects kindred to his theme. It is a convincing though condensed refutation of all, even the most recent, errors of those who reject Christ, the Son of the living God."—

The Catholic World.

"Numerous authorities and references are cited, and the book is stamped by accuracy of statement, clearness of treatment and a wide grasp of the subject. Every page bears testimony to the patient industry and deep research of the author."—The True Witness and Catholic Chronicle, Montreal, Canada.

THE FOUR GOSPELS,

Examined and Vindicated on Catholic Principles, by the MOST REV. M. HEISS, Archbishop of Milwaukee. Price, elegantly bound in Cloth, $1.00.

".....It is an indispensable auxiliary to the student of Biblical lore. In it is compactly condensed an amount of information, requiring much research among the great authors of antiquity"..... Church Progress, Marshall, Ill.

Whoever may be engaged at any time in smoothing the way to positive dogma for the seminarian, through the difficulties, philosophical, historical, and biblical, of the religion treatise, will welcome the appearance of the Most Rev. Dr. Heiss' critical study of the Four Gospels. The temptation is great for the teacher to assume the truth of the Gospel narrative, and, clinging close to the horns of the great syllogism that reaches from fact to faith, refer his too inquisitive pupil to the professor of Scripture for the purely critical questions that block his ponderous way. This is what Peronne does, very curtly and peremptorily: "Sacrarum litterarum professorem adeat, qui vult cognoscere cur ita credamus." But, after all, it seems like demanding too much, in these days, when every step towards revealed truth is contested, to ask as a postulate the genuine authorship and the historical truth of the Four Gospels. Yet, on the other hand, we can not get on with our foundation fabric without establishing those facts: while we feel, all the time, that they are not material of the pure theology which we flatter ourselves we are pursuing to its legitimate end.

A work, therefore, like that of Archbishop Heiss is a great aid and a relief both to professor and student. The former can put it into the hands of the scholar, and, securing his main argument as far as it has gone, give himself a rest for a time, or dawdle with lighter literature. For the pupil, the book will afford a pleasing episode in his course, and bring him safely down from his metaphysical heights to niceties of fact. . . . . The book is honest in argument, nothing concealing or diminishing of the difficulties the author contends with. In matter is complete, up to the last details of the critical controversy. The work is, at all points, a satisfactory vindication of the truth of the Gospel narrative. It may well take the place of Glaire, Bergier, and the many other authors whom students were heretofore obliged to consult—and they could do little more—when entering upon their theological career. R. H.
Ave Maria, Notre Dame, Ind.

Hoffmanns' Catholic Directory, Almanac and Clergy List—Quarterly.

Price per Year, 4 Numbers, 50 Cents.

".....It is excellently gotten up. This work has been rapidly growing in favor, is published at a very low price, fifty cents, and the Quarterly Clergy List renders the work as near correct as human skill can make it....." Freeman's Journal, New York.

".....It is due to the enterprising firm of Hoffmann Bros. that we have a cheap Directory, and one far superior to the high-priced Sadlier's Directory ....." Church Progress, St. Louis.

".....It is a marvel of intelligent research and careful compilation....." Pilot, Boston.

".....Carefully compiled and handsomely printed....." Mirror, Baltimore.

".....It merits patronage beyond all other Directories of the Clergy, as it destroyed a monopoly that existed for years, and lessened by more than one-half the price. An effort is now being made by the old monopoly to undersell Hoffmann, but even if the Directories were equal in merit, Hoffmann's should be preferred for the good it has already done....." I. C. B. U. Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.

".....The Directory and Clergy List is by far the most complete and cheapest publication of its kind in the United States....." Catholic Sentinel, Portland.

".....We had to wait a long while for a full, good and reliable Directory. We now have one....." Weekly Catholic World, St. Louis.

CARDINAL'S RESIDENCE,
BALTIMORE, October, 30th, 1888.

Very Rev. Dear Father: I beg to thank you for the copy of Devotion to the Holy Ghost, which you were kind enough to send me.

While many champions of the Faith are engaged in defending the city of God against the assaults of the enemy, others, like yourself, are reminding us most seasonably that it is only by the Spirit of God that the interior can be illumined and adorned.

May all hearts experience more and more in our days the warmth of the Holy Spirit, and may the "Dulcis Hospes animae" fill you with all consolation and reward you for your pious offering. Faithfully yours, in Christ,

A BOOK FOR THE CLERGY.

THE POCKET PEW-REGISTER,

AND SCHOOL ASSESSMENT RECORD.

CAN BE USED SIMPLY AS A PEW-BOOK, AS A SCHOOL ASSESSMENT BOOK, OR AS A COMBINATION OF BOTH.

The Pew Books, Registers, etc., which have hitherto appeared, while admirably adapted to the wants of pastors in large city parishes, have failed to be of practical utility to others, who constitute by far the large majority of pastors of the United States. Pastors whose parishes are small, or who must give their attention to out-missions, have often felt the want of a pew-book of convenient size and perfect arrangement. To supply this want the "POCKET PEW REGISTER" has been designed.

THE POCKET PEW-BOOK will be of advantage in various ways. It is convenient because of its size; thus enabling the pastor to carry it with him when visiting members of his congregation, or when attending out-missions. Its arrangement is such that the pastor can see at a glance the amount that is to be collected from each pew during the year, the amount paid quarterly by each pew-holder, or due from him, as the case may be. The number of the page is the number of the pew. A convenient alphabetical index is prefixed, while at the end are a few pages properly ruled for summing up.

THE SCHOOL ASSESSMENT RECORD is an entirely new feature, and will be found indespensible to those pastors who have charge of parochial schools. Experience has proven, that the school assessment is collected most easily at the time when pew-rent is paid; consequently a record is in demand in which, while each account is kept distinctly separate from the other, both should appear under the name of the pew holder. Two books are no longer required where the POCKET PEW-BOOK is in use. Copyright has been secured.

Directions for entering the accounts are given in each copy, rendering a pastor's work so simple and easy that none should be without the book.

The ordinary size is 4¼ by 6¾ and is suitable for 100 pews, with school assessment and pew rent account for eight persons in each pew for the term of one year. If the pew contains four persons, each of whom has an individual account, the book will serve two years; if the account be entered under the name of the head of the family, that is, if the name of one person only be recorded on each page as a pew-holder, the book will serve eight years with school assessment or sixteen years without it.

THE POCKET PEW REGISTER is elegantly bound in brown cloth, flexible covers, with title stamed on the front in gilt letters. Can be had for any number of pews from 100 to 150. If no size be mentioned, the ordinary 100 pages will be sent. Larger sizes to order if notice be given within two weeks.

The price is so low that no pastor should be without a copy for each of his missions.

All orders will be filled as fast as the books come from the press. Terms, invariably cash. Enclose remittance by postal note, express order or money order. Only a limited number of copies will be issued.
